USPA NEWS - Over the past twenty years, Czech artists have finally received recognition that was not granted to them at their time.

One of these people is Aneta HorskÃ¡, this name is well known among artists not only in the Czech Republic but also in Europe. Aneta is very talented. She paints her works on canvas and even settles in frames that she restores herself. Her works are getting more and more well into critics' subconscious. They are rated more than well. Aneta HorskÃ¡ is a great painter who elevates art to another level, just because she restores the frames into which she puts her beautiful works.

Interesting is also the intimate dimension of the work, which gives the opportunity to speak to the viewer very personally.
On the one hand, the passion for the present, but on the other hand also the suggestive melancholy, the awareness of transience, the memory of something lost.

From the artistic-historical point of view, significant are those artists who have fundamentally influenced the contemporary international or at least national artistic opinion, or on the contrary they have been fundamentally beyond it.

There are many works that collectors are most interested in.
There are also many people who are her admirers and fans ,the result of her exhibitions was a surprise that no one expected.
Czech art thrives like never before.

We wish this talented painter to continue to do well in what and how she does, so that her works continue to be more and more admired and never lose her passion for her work.
